

Ivana Abigail Alvarenga
Oboe

She began studying oboe in 2009 in the school orchestra Grillitos Sinfónicos in Misiones, Argentina.

Misiones, Argentina. From 2011 to 2017 he took lessons with Luciano Leo. She participated in several festivals during his adolescence, such as Iguazú en Concierto (2010-2017) Femusc (2017), Jujuy Corazón Andino (2018). Also, with the maestro Francesco Grigolo and Fronteras Musicales abiertas, he toured Paraguay (2013) and Italy (2015), the latter playing at Expo Milano as opening act for Giovanni Allevi. During 2018 she performed as 1st oboe of the symphony orchestra of Chaco. In 2019 she entered the Instituto Superior de Artes del Teatro Colón, which she completed in 2021. In 2021 she joined the Juvenil Nacional José de San Martín, and in October of the same year she won the competition for 2nd oboe in the Sinfónica Municipal de Avellaneda, where she continues to play today. Since 2019 she has been a student of Michelle Wong, but she also takes classes at the Universidad Nacional de las Artes (where she is in her first year) with Rubén Albornoz and has participated in masterclasses with Gordon Hunt, Alex Klein, Jorge Pinzón and Natalia Auli.