

Esteban Vergara
Violin

He started playing the violin at the age of 8 (2003) at the music school of Colegio Monte de Asís. In 2010 he participated in the Metropolitan Children's Symphony Orchestra, and the following year he participated in the Metropolitan Student Symphony Orchestra until 2013. In the same year and at the age of 17 I began to study in the elementary cycle of the Catholic University with Professor Rubén Sierra. In 2015 I was awarded a scholarship to the Chamber Orchestra of the UC Music Institute. In 2016 he participated in a masterclass given by Eva-Christina Schönweiß who teaches at the "Hanns Eisler" music school in Berlin, Germany, and later he did an internship in this country with Professor Schönweiß, Alvaro Parra and Petr Matejak. Since 2017 she is part of the Chamber Orchestra of the Municipal Theatre of Santiago where since 2019 she is Concertmaster.
