

Natalia Castro Pulgarín, Clarinet

Colombia

Master of Music from the University of Caldas. She began her music studies in Caldas. In 2010 she was awarded as the best woodwind instrumentalist in the Caldas Department band competition. She studied with maestros Freddy Mauricio Pinzón, Hernán Darío Gutiérrez and Guillermo Marín, Michael Collins, Robert Plane, Mauricio Murcia, Juan Alejandro Candamil and Lenin Izaguirre, among others. She played in the Manizales Band of Music and is currently a member of the Symphony Band of Pereira.

She participated in different festivals, such as the Second International Congress of Music for Bands (Medellín), Caldas Regional Clarinet Meetings (Manizales), Otún Clarinet Fest (Pereira), the Winter Festival of Campos de Jordao (Brazil), Portillo International Music Festival (Chile), and the Artist Diploma (OACADEMY).