

Camila Huenumán Flores, Cello

Chile

Cellist from Antofagasta with experience in youth and professional orchestras and chamber ensembles. She began her musical studies on the cello at the age of 6 at Liceo Experimental Artístico de Antofagasta (LEA). She has participated in different national and international chamber music festivals as well as in different Masterclasses with outstanding cellists.

She is currently a student of music performance at Universidad de Chile and is the leader of different orchestral and chamber ensembles, including the Orquesta Latinoamericana de Chile (OLCH), Camerata Cordillera and Chile Big Band String Orchestra.