

Jamil Morales
Violin

He began his violin studies at the age of 6. From the age of 9 to 15 he belonged to the Orquesta Infantil y Juvenil del Ministerio de Educación under the baton of maestro Wilfredo Tarazona where he also had the opportunity to perform as concertmaster and soloist.

He was a member for 3 years of the Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional Juvenil Bicentenario. He has been invited by different symphonic and chamber orchestras of the city as concertmaster or soloist on concertmaster or soloist on occasions.

He is currently a student of Carlos Johnson (Peruvian violinist and concertmaster of the Lübeck Philharmonic Orchestra, Germany) studying the eighth cycle of musical interpretation in the speciality of violin at the National University of Music of Peru. Since this year he has also been the concertmaster of the university orchestra. Since December 2019 he is violinist of the Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional del Perú.