

Fernando Ortega Mora
French Horn

He began his studies in music at the age of 14 years in the municipality of Anserma caldas, has integrated the symphonic band of anserma, youth philharmonic orchestra of coffee, brass ensemble of the university of caldas, municipal band of Manizales, young philharmonic orchestra of Colombia and quintet vastago. He took part in the following international festivals, Alfredo de saint malo (panama - 2017) Aruba symphony festival and academy in 2018 and 2019, winner of first place in the national brass competition of the academy of metals of Santander (2021), first place in the latin american brass competition AMEB, (2021), winner of the v festival of chamber music of the retreat organized by iberacademy, (quinteto vástago 2021), winner of young performers of the bank of the republic, chamber music modality (quinteto vástago - 2022), is part of the record production made by the brass ensemble of the university of caldas (2019), has worked as a teacher of french horn in the youth area throughout the country, is currently a student of the program of master of music at the university of caldas under the tutelage of Luis Fernando López.