

Leonie Rass, Violin

Vienna

I started my violin studies at the age of 4, and since 2017 I also play the piano. I am currently studying at the preparatory school in Vienna with Dominika Falger.

On four consecutive occasions I participated in the Prima la Musica Competition and was the winner from Styria.

I have participated in concerts at the Stefaniensaal, the Mumuth, the Mozarthaus, the Golden Hall in Vienna and the Bregenz Festival. I have also travelled to Slovenia, Hungary, Croatia, China, Latvia, Spain, Chile and France to play in concerts with different orchestras.

At the age of 12 I joined the Styrian Orchestra and since that year I have been a concert master.

In 2019 I participated in the concert tour with the Brahms Players to China.

During the summer I had the opportunity to work in the Styriarte Youth Orchestra and at the Vienna Symphony Summer Academy.

Since October 2022 I also have a substitute position at Recreation Graz and since 2023, I am a member of the Jeunesse Orchestra in Vienna. I also played in the final round of the European Youth Orchestra.

Finally, during this 2023 I had the opportunity to participate in an exchange project at the JONDE (Spanish Youth Orchestra). With 4 concerts in Baeza, Jaen, Almeria and Granada.
