

Jesús Fuentes Sepúlveda, Viola

Chile

Jesús Fuentes Sepúlveda is in the penultimate year of his Superior Musical Performance Program in Viola, with Professor Penélope Knuth at the Conservatory of the Universidad Mayor. He was born in the city of Arica, Chile, and currently performs as Violist Tutti of the Camerata de la Universidad Andrés Bello and also in the Chamber Orchestra of the Teatro Municipal in Santiago de Chile.

He has developed his career performing in different orchestras in the country, either as a scholarship holder, regular or guest musician in places like the Maule Classic Orchestra, the Copiapó Symphony Orchestra, the Temuco Philharmonic Orchestra, Camerata Andrés Bello, Chamber Orchestra of Teatro Municipal de Santiago, Youth National Symphony Orchestra, Philharmonic Orchestra of Teatro Municipal de Santiago, among others.

He has performed in Germany, Morocco and Spain with the Chilean Youth National Symphony Orchestra. He has also performed in several artistic projects such as Kokorone Music and has accompanied different artists such as Ricky Martin and Luis Miguel.

His artistic training includes his participation in venues such as the Portillo International Music Festival and Academy (2021, 2023), Patagonia International Festival (FIMP - 2020), and the Young Euro Classic Festival (2019), receiving Viola and Chamber Music lessons from Professors Roberto Díaz, Daniel Avshalomov, Macarena Pesutic, Ivan Mateau and Sara Rilling, and Paul Cortés, among others.