

Juan Diego Bobadilla, French Horn

Colombia

He began his studies at the age of 11 at the Escuela de Música Comarca de Apia Risaralda.

During 2012, 2013 and 2014 he played in several symphonic band competitions. In 2015 he was selected to be part of the Colombian National Symphonic Band, and the Risaralda Department Orchestra and Band (2015-2016). During 2015 and 2016 he was a guest workshop leader at different symphonic band meetings.

In 2018 he began studying music at Antioquia University in Medellín, and also joined the Antioquia Department Orchestra. During 2018 and 2019 he plays in the Students' Band of Antioquia University, with which he wins the first place in the National Symphonic Band Competition in Tacancipa and Paipa Boyaca.

In 2021 he won a half scholarship to the Brass Academy of Alicante in Spain, where he studied with Nury Guarnaschelli. In 2022 he was selected to play in the Symphonic Band of Antioquia University. In 2023 he joined the Iberacademy Orchestra in Medellín to participate in the Mozartbougé Music Festival in Salzburg (Austria), where he had lessons with Adrián Díaz Martínez. He was invited to play with the Colombian National Symphony Orchestra and was selected to join the Colombian Youth Philharmonic Orchestra.