

FEDERICO CURTI, Oboe

First oboe soloist of the Montevideo Philharmonic Orchestra and the OSSODRE, professor at the University School of Music of Uruguay.

He graduated as Master of Music at the Hochschule Für Musik und Darstellende Kunst Stuttgart (Germany) with the highest qualification in the class of Maestro Christian Schmitt.

Federico began his musical studies at the Escuela de Iniciación Musical de Educación Primaria "Virgilio Scarabelli Alberti". His first contact with the oboe was through the Sistema de Orquestas Infantiles y Juveniles del Uruguay, where he was taught by Elvira Casanova. Later he enters the University School of Music under the guidance of Professor Casanova, and at the same time he receives lessons from Professor Néstor Garrote in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

In 2008 he was admitted to the oboe professorship of Professor Jaime Martínez in Venezuela. The following year he entered the Conservatoire National Regional de Nice (France) where he graduated with a Diploma of Musical Studies in the chair of Professor Vincent Tizon. After completing his Diploma studies, he travelled to Paris to perfect his studies with Professor Daniel Arrignon at the National Regional Conservatory of Rueil Malmaison, where he obtained a first prize for specialisation with the highest qualifications.

He participates as a guest musician in: Orchestre Régional de Cannes, Orchestre Philharmonique de Nice, Orchestre des Jeunes Européens, Conservatoire Régional du Grand Nancy, Orchester Liestal, Basler Festival Orchester, Orquesta Sinfónica Provincial de Santa Fe, Orquesta Filarmónica de Santiago.

He carries out important work in the dissemination of Latin American music and the creation of national music in chamber concerts and international festivals. He participates as soloist with the OSSODRE, Montevideo Philharmonic Orchestra (Uruguay), Santa Fe Provincial Symphony Orchestra (Argentina), La Serena Symphony Orchestra (Chile), Asunción City Symphony Orchestra (Paraguay) performing the classical concertos of the repertoire.

Federico Curti is an exclusive artist of the Rigoutat brand and has the pleasure to play with an oboe model J.
