

Juanita Angarita, Violin

Colombia

Juanita began the musical studies at the Batuta National Foundation, later joined the Orquesta Sinfónica Juvenil de Colombia Foundation, and in 2017 begins at the Conservatory of Music of the National University of Colombia, where she is currently finishing undergraduate studies. She has participated in master classes with renowned violinists such as Nancy Zhou, Markus Placci, Lynn Chang, Martina Trump. She has been selected for music festivals such as Esmeraldas Music Festival, Suzuki Festival, among others.

Currently, Juanita is part of the Philharmonic Youth of Colombia, she has played under the direction of Andrés Orozco Estrada in countries like Germany, Austria and Holland. She is also a member of the Bogotá Women's Philharmonic since 2022.