

Montserrat Tapia Gerter, Bassoon

Chile

She began her bassoon studies at the School of Arts Armando Dufey Blanc in Temuco. In 2015 she entered Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile where she studied with Marina Martelli and Monzerrat Miranda.

She played in the National Youth Symphony Orchestra (2016-2020), and went to national and international tours, and had masterclasses with Simon Van Holen, Sophie Dervaux and Raffaele Gianotti, among others.

She is currently finishing her degree in Bassoon Performance and performs as guest bassoon in different orchestras and ensembles.
