

Stiven Casas Zuñiga, Cello

Colombia

He began his musical training at the Cantares Foundation in Tolú with Amalia Carrera and Mayra Sierra. Subsequently in the Music School Network of Medellín.

He has participated in different events and festivals such as: 10th International Classical Music Festival of Cartagena (2016), Concert Leon de Greiff Tribute Luis Antonio Calvo (2019), Frutillar Master Course of International Chamber Music (CMMC) (2020), among others.

He has attended classes with teachers such as: Pavel Rusev, Aldo Mata, James Churchill, Santiago Cañón, Tanja Tetzlaff.

He is currently part of the Symphony Orchestra of the University of Antioquia. He is currently studying for a Master's degree in cello performance at the EAFIT University.