

Bryan Paris
French Horn

He began his horn studies in 2004 under the tutelage of Juliana Guevara and Florentino Sierra at the Red de Escuelas de Medellín. Graduated from the University of Antioquia where his teacher was Angélica Ortegón. He was horn player of the Symphonic Orchestra of Antioquia, O.S.J Red de Escuelas, Young Philharmonic of Colombia, International Academy Teatro del Lago (Chile), "la Armónica" of Buñol in Valencia (Spain), Philharmonic Academy of Medellin (now Iberacademy), Symphonic Orchestra of the University of Antioquia. He has also been a soloist with the Eafit Symphony Orchestra, the Student Symphonic Band of the University of Antioquia, the Red de escuelas de Medellín Youth Orchestra and the Symphony Orchestra of the National University of San Juan (Argentina). He was a fellow of the Cartagena International Music Festival in 2018 and 2019. He has also been selected to participate in several chamber music festivals including Festicámara Medellín and Portillo Chamber Music Festival (Chile). He is currently horn player of the San Juan Symphony Orchestra and professor of horn at the National University of San Juan (Argentina).