

Pavel Serrano Navarro, Oboe

Venezuela

He began his musical studies at the age of 11 with professor María Revollo. He studied at the Federico Villena music school and graduated from Universidad Pedagógica Experimental Libertador as a Music Teacher. He attended oboe lessons with maestros Ricardo Riveiro and Víctor Morlés, Olivieri Doise, David Walter and Guido Guetty.

He has played with the Aragua Youth Symphony Orchestra "José Félix Ribas" (2008), the Aragua State Symphony Orchestra (2014) and the Venezuela Philharmonic Orchestra (2017). He has also played with the Ecuador National Symphony Orchestra and the Guayaquil Symphony Orchestra (2018).

He has been under the conduction of Gustavo Dudamel, Pablo Castellano, Hans Graf among others.

He participated in the International Oboe Festival of Caracas (2011), the IV International Music Festival of Esmeraldas, and the Portillo International Music Festival.

He currently lives in Chile and works in the Antofagasta Symphony Orchestra.