

Sebastián López, Viola

Chile

He studied at Universidad de Chile with Professor Pedro Poveda.

He has more than 10 years of orchestral experience. He has played with the Santiago Student's Symphony Orchestra, the National Youth Symphony Orchestra, where he won the First Viola competition, and also in self-managed projects such as the San Miguel Chamber Orchestra, and early music ensembles such as the Santiago Baroque Orchestra and the Camerata dei Fiori.

He participated in the Master Course of Chamber Music at Teatro del Lago (2019) and in the Academy of Latin American Orchestras at Teatro del Lago (2023).

He has taught at the San Miguel Youth Symphony Orchestra, the San Francisco de Mostazal School of Arts, the Colina Music School, among others. He has prepared young musicians who have been selected in OSIM and OSEM, in the Faculty of Arts of the University of Chile and even in the University of Bremen, Germany.