

Julia Elizabeth González Ortega
Violin

She began her musical studies at the age of 7 at the National Conservatory of Music with Dr. Carlos Álvarez Romero and the teacher Marta Olvera. She obtained the scholarships for excellence from the Instituto Nacional de Bellas Artes, la Fundación Amigos del Conservatory and the Autonomous Metropolitan University.

In 2015 he was certified by The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, obtaining with distinction the Diploma of ABRSM of Music Performance.

In 2016 he obtained a Bachelor's Degree from The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music.

Music, as well as in 2018 the Bachelor of Concert Violin Performance, from the National Conservatory of Music, where he studied under the tutelage of Maestro Aron Bitrán and Maestro Boris Dinerschtein. He has taken master classes with soloists Jorge Risi, Adrian Justus and Álvaro Larez.

She was a member of the Orquesta Sinfónica de la Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Hidalgo, under the direction of Maestro Eduardo Alvarez and Maestro Geatan Kutcha.

She is currently studying viola with Felisa Hernández Salmeron. She has participated in master classes with Sara Fernández, Rita Porfiris, Francisco Ladrón de Guevara, Isabel Villanueva, Adriana Linares and Maestro Leo Le Neve.

In 2019 he participated with the Orquesta del Teatro de Bellas Artes in the violas section, in the staging of the operas "The Damnation of Faust" and "The Tales of Hoffman".

I am part of the violas section of the Orquesta Juvenil Universitaria Eduardo Mata from January 2019 to July 2022.