

Ivana Alvarenga, Oboe

Argentina

She began studying oboe at the age of 9 in a local orchestra school. Between the ages of 11 and 17 she had lessons with Luciano Leo. She also has participated in various festivals, such as Femusc (2017), Jujuy Corazón Andino (2018) and Portillo International Music Festival and Academy (2023). She also participated in a tour in Italy (2015) with the Open Musical Frontiers Orchestra.

During 2018 she was the 1st oboe in the symphony orchestra of Chaco. In 2019 she entered the Colon Theatre Higher Institute of Arts, in Buenos Aires. In 2021 he joined the José de San Martín National Youth Orchestra, and in October of the same year he won the competition for second oboe in the Avellaneda Municipal Symphony Orchestra. In July 2023 she won the competition for second oboe and second English horn in Argentinian National Orchestra.

Since 2019 she has been a student of Michelle Wong, she also has classes with Rubén Albornoz and has participated in masterclasses with prominent oboists such as Gordon Hunt, Alex Klein, Jorge Pinzón, Natalia Auli, Nestor Garrote, among others