Violin

I was born in Punta Arenas, Magallanes, and started my violin studies at Universidad de Magallanes Conservatory when I was 8. In 2015 I moved to Valparaiso to study engineering, but in 2017 I decided to study music at PUCV Conservatory. In 2020 I started my studies of Music Interpretation in violin with professor Boris del Río at PUCV

I've played in the UMAG Chamber Orchestra (2009 to 2014), the UTFSM Students Orchestra (2017), the Youth Orchestra of Valparaíso (2017), the Youth Orchestra of PUCV Conservatory, and the PUCV Chamber Orchestra as a violin tutti since 2019.
