

Gonzalo Hernández
Viola

Born in Puerto Montt, he began his musical studies at the School of Culture and Artistic Diffusion, thanks to the interest of his family and Fernando Álvarez, teacher at the time of the music workshop at the primary schools, where he would later move with his mentor Alonso Ojeda to secondary school. After meeting Penélope Knuth, he prepared with Natalia Hidalgo his last years of secondary school to apply to the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, where he is currently graduating with a degree in viola performance. Among his guides are also mentioned some musicians such as Sergio Muñoz, Máximo París, Mihai Cocea, Martin Osten, Francesca Venturi, Georgina Rossi. He has participated in numerous orchestras such as Regional Los Lagos, Foji, Municipal de Puerto Montt, Cámara de la Patagonia, Orquesta Sinfónica de La Serena, Orquesta Imuc, tango Felix Verdi, to mention a few, as well as participating in multiple stages, chamber music improvement courses, baroque music, and music festivals among others.
