

Gianella Príncipe Ricapa, Violin

Peru

Gianella likes to work in a team and enjoys musical challenges that make her improve her musical career. She is a creative and innovative person, and is constantly looking to improve her instrument playing.

She enjoys the solo repertoire on the violin as well as the orchestral and chamber music repertoire. She is always open to different opinions in order to be able to play her instrument better.

She has participated in the International Esmeraldas Music Festival in Guayaquil and in the Winter Festival Campos de Jordão 53rd edition in Brazil, where she received master classes from great violinists. She has also had performances in Germany. These experiences have greatly enriched his musical career and have increased his interest in the constant improvement of the violin.