

Lua Suau Radovic, Viola

Chile

She is studying the basic stage in Musical Interpretation at the University of Chile. She has attended numerous master classes with maestros Roberto Díaz, Flavia Motta, Paulina Riquelme and Phaedra Kalogerakou, among others.

She has been a member of the violas row of the Orquesta de Niños de Ñuñoa, the Orquesta Sinfónica Infantil Metropolitana, the Orquesta Campamento Musical Costa del Maule in Pelluhue, and the Fundación de Orquestas Juveniles e Infantiles de Chile (FOJI), and a scholarship holder of the Instruments Academy (viola) of the Fundación de Orquestas Juveniles e Infantiles de Chile.

She participated in the Dispotraining for Musicians course in Santiago with professors Ingrid Zur and Jörg Heyer, and in tours to La Serena, Valdivia and Chiloé. Also in the Encounters with Gustavo Dudamel in Los Angeles, USA (2022) and Spain (2021).

She has been invited to the Orquesta Sinfónica Estudiantil de Linares and the Camerata Sforzando de Curicó. In 2021 she was winner of the Santiago Solo Competition, and in 2023 she was part of the Camerata Papageno Jazz, in Villarrica, Chile, in the recording of an album with Andrea Motis, Christoph Mallinger and Federico Danneman.

In 2019 she was selected to participate in the Huilo Huilo International Festival, and in 2023, for the Portillo International Music Festival and Academy.