

Fernanda Baeza Vergara, Flute

Chile

He began his studies of transverse flute at the Escuela Experimental de Música Jorge Peña Hen and joined Karina Fischer's professorship at the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile in 2013. In 2021 he obtains with maximum distinction the degree of Superior Performer in Traverse Flute.

He has participated in various bands and symphony orchestras; national and international masterclasses with renowned solo flautists and members of prestigious orchestras such as Mario Caroli, Sophie Cherrier, Wally Hase, among others. He has also participated in international courses and festivals in Argentina, Brazil, Austria and Luxembourg.

From June 2021 to June 2022, he studied Piccolo with Beatrice Ovalle, member of the Philharmonic Orchestra of Teatro Municipal de Santiago de Chile.

He is currently a member of the San Miguel Chamber Orchestra, La Chile Big Band and Quinteto Ventum.