

Jesús Andrés Fuentes Sepúlveda

Viola

He is studying the 2nd year of the Superior Musical Interpretation in Viola, under the tutelage of Professor Penélope Knuth at the Conservatory of the Universidad Mayor. He was born in the city of Arica, Chile. He currently works as Professor of the Viola and Children's Orchestra workshop at the Escuela Básica Villa San Miguel; as Violist Tutti of the Camerata Andrés Bello and also as Violist Tutti of the Orquesta Cámara del Teatro Municipal in Santiago de Chile. He has developed his career by participating in different orchestras throughout the country, either as a regular musician, guest or scholarship holder in places like Orquesta Clásica Teatro Regional del Maule, Camerata Andrés Bello, Orquesta Cámara del Teatro Municipal de Santiago, Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional Juvenil de Chile among other groups. Some of his performances in recent years include International Concerts in Germany, Morocco and Spain with OSNJ, he has also participated in various artistic projects accompanying different types of ensembles and groups. Among his artistic training highlights his participation in places like Festival Portillo (2021), Festival Internacional de la Patagonia (FIMP - 2020), Young Euro Classic Festival (2019), receiving classes of Viola and Chamber Music with Professors like Roberto Díaz, Daniel Ashmalov, Macarena Pesutic, Ivan Mateau and Sara Rilling among other Professors.